Please create a document comparing candidates running against each other who represent constituents in the [insert ZIP] ZIP code. Please arrange the comparisons by district in the following order: federal Senate candidates, federal congressional candidates, Texas gubernatorial candidates, Texas statewide candidates other than for the office of governor, state judicial candidates, Texas state Senate candidates, Texas state House candidates, local judicial candidates, local county candidates, local municipal candidates, ballot propositions, and ISD candidates. For each candidate's profile, include the following:

- When available, the candidate's first and last name, party, photo, and whether or not they are an incumbent.
- If a candidate is an incumbent, include their voting record on the follow policy areas [insert policy areas of interest, such as public education]. Include each bill number, a one-sentence description of the bill using information from a nonpartisan source, and the whether the candidate voted for the measure, against the measure, or abstained from or was not present for the vote.
- When available, summarize what the Texas League of Women Voters, the editorial boards of any nonpartisan newspapers, and TeachtheVote.org have to say about the candidate.
- Based on the candidate's own website and the candidate's own social media posts, summarize what each candidate has to say about their position on the following issues: [insert policy areas of interest, such as public education]. Please be sure to indicate that these comments are from the candidate themselves and are likely subject to some degree of framing and bias.
- Based on each candidate's public filings with the Texas Ethics Commission between Dec. 1, 2025, and the present, list each candidate's top five donors.
- Based on public filings with the Texas Ethics Commission between Dec. 1, 2025, and the present, list any third-party direct expenditures over $10,000 made on behalf of the candidate. Include the name of the person or organization who made the expenditure and whether the expenditure was made in support or opposition of the candidate. If the expenditure was made by an organization, include whether the organization primarily supports or opposes Democrats or Republicans, and the organization's top five funders.
- When available, include a list of organizations who have endorsed the candidate. Include the name of the organization, whether the organization primarily supports or opposes Democrats or Republicans, and the organization's top five funders.

Cite all sources. Do not make up any sources. In the instance that requested information on a candidate cannot be found, please leave that portion of the candidate's profile blank, only summarize publicly available information, and do not generate, create or make up any new information.
